

DOS DÉUS ORIGINS

→ DRY WHITE VERMOUTH

Dry white vermouth is the most intense and powerful vermouth, and consequently it is associated with the most powerful god of Olympus, Zeus.

Product details

- ⚡ Produced in the Priorat area, Spain.
- ⚡ Produced with 90% local Macabeo grapes and 10% mistela wine liquor.
- ⚡ Natural and superior botanicals.
- ⚡ A complex and proprietary herbaceous blend.
- ⚡ 39 herbs and spices including blue ginger, black pepper and angelica root.
- ⚡ All the sweetness comes naturally from the grapes.
- ⚡ It can be used both as extra-dry vermouth and as dry vermouth, given its peculiar, sweet notes.

Tasting notes

Nose: A bouquet of spices such as cloves, cinnamon and nutmeg merge with aromas of grapes.

Palate: The earthy aromas are accentuated. The initial taste is powerful, dry but voluminous, leaving a slightly viscous mouth-feel.

Finish: The long persistence of the spicy notes and white fortified wine stands out.

Awards
