

DOS DÉUS ORIGINS

→ BAG-IN BOX CUPIDO AHUMADO

Our smoked vermouth is unique on the market. Its creation was inspired by Islay whiskies, which use peat to smoke the malt, and by American bourbon refined in extra-charred barrels. A complex and unusual vermouth, it is therefore associated with Hades, the god of the underworld — a realm full of mystery, just like this vermouth.

Tasting notes

Nose: An attractive and unique vermouth with unprecedented aromatic complexity. Elegantly intense and well-structured, offering a remarkable balance between floral notes, wood, and smoke.

Palate: Complex and layered, gentle yet expressive, with bittersweet notes balanced by the fresh character of the grape varieties. Moderate hints of vanilla and charcoal. Smooth and fruity with a smoky touch reminiscent of an American whiskey.

Finish: Vibrant and fresh, long and indulgent, herbal and spicy... and stubbornly Scottish.
